THE MURDER TRIAL

Is Occupying The Time of The Superior Court Today.

The trial of Malcom Smitherman for the murder of Harry Palmer in High Point began in Superior court here this morning at ten o'clock. It was 11:55 before the jury was empanelled and the examination of witnesses began. Solicitor Merritt is assisted by Messrs. Barringer of this city and Robinson, of High Point. The defense is represented by Major Steadman, Messrs. Bradshaw, Steele and Ragan.

This homicide, it will be remembered, was committed in High Point on Sunday afternoon, November 20, and grew out of an old grudge about some whiskey. Smitherman, Tom Eccles, Harry Palmer (the deceased) and Fred Alford were at the latter's house, looking at some 'possums when Smitherman said something to Palmer and asked him what he had against him. Palmer then charged Smitherman with refusing to let him have whiskey, saying he had none and that he let two other men have some. Smitherman said this was not true and Palmer called him a d—n liar. Smitherman then drew a pistol and snapped at Palmer, and made the second attempt when the pistol fired. The men were only three or four feet apart. Palmer repeated that Smitherman was a d—n liar, then fell to the ground and expired.

This is about the substance of the testimony of the first witness for the state, Tom Eccles, who was present. There are a large number of witnesses on each side, and the trial will probably occupy a good portion of the day tomorrow.

At four o'clock this afternoon, Fred Alfred, the second witness, is still on the stand. His evidence, in the main, is corroborative of that of Tom Eccles.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

The Celebrated Peruchi-Beldeni-Co. All Next Week

Monday the public of Greensboro will see the Peruchi- Beldeni-Company whose stay here will be limited to a week. The sensational drama of "A Kentucky Girl" has been selected for the opening. Between acts high class vaudeville is interspersed. The program will be changed nightly. Farce, comedy, musical, drama, romantic, comic, pastorial and sensational, every class to please every taste. The prices are to be the popular—10, 20 and 30 cents. Ladies accompanied by the holder of one paid 30-cent ticket, will be admitted free Monday night, provided the seats are secured by six o'clock, p. m This company comes endorsed by the press of such cities as Atlanta, Nashville, etc., as the attraction of all repertoire companies. Nothing of its class is said to compare with its excellence of detail It is said to be a dollar show for a popular price. Go Monday and see the opening play and you will go every night. A word to the wise: Secure your seats, at Gardner's early,

Bates' war views of locality-heroes, and war vessels will also be seen between acts with an electric magno stereoptican.

White Men Coming.

The Wilmington Messenger says that since the race trouble there, nearly 1,400 negroes have left the city. They have gone to all parts of the country, principally to South Carolina and Georgia.

One real estate man says his rent receipts have fallen off $600. Another says the negro tenants of fifteen of his houses in Brooklyn the scene of the race trouble, and at least 40 others have left that quarter and the houses are placarded "to rent." Negroes who call to rent houses will not have any in that quarter of the city. On the other hand there is an influx of white people to take the place of negroes. These same real estate agents declare that white strangers are beseiging them for suitable houses to rent and are buying houses. They have sold more houses and lots to strangers in the past three weeks than for three years before One agent turned away six white applicants in one day.

Christmas Bazaar.

One week from today the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Andrew's church will open their Holiday Bazaar, in the large hall over the Fishblate-Katz Company's store, on South Elm street, where they will display a fine line of novelties for Christmas gifts. The ladies have been working for several months to prepare for this sale, and their labors have resulted in many beautiful, unique and useful articles.

In addition to the sale, the ladies will serve dinner and supper on both Thursday and Friday. A number of the well known musicians in town have promised to play and sing on those nights, making the occasion one of pleasure.

The booths will be under the charge of the ladies of the society, who will be assisted by many of the young ladies of the city. The proceeds of the sale will be used by the ladies in their parish work.

WASHINGTON NEWS TODAY.

Experiment of Government Ownership of Telegraph.

THE IMMIGRATION COMMITTEE.

Will Not Urge Their Bill Until There is a Full Attendance in Congress—Other Matters.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Dec. 8—The situation in Porto Rico, where the government owns all telegraphs is forcing the experiment of government control. Those in charge of the work say it is too early to draw conclusions as the cost of long delayed repairs is greater than the income of the lines.

THE IMMIGRATION BILL.

Washington, Dec. 8—Chairman Danforth, of the committee on Immigration, says he will not urge the Immigration bill until more members arrive. The passage of the measure, he thinks, might be endangered by going to a vote with a small attendance.

THE DEFICIENCY BILL.

Washington, Dec, 8—The house has taken up the urgency deficiency bill of the army and navy.

IN THE SENATE.

Washington, Dec. 8—A bill has been introduced in the senate to prevent the appointment of senators as commissioners. The pension bill was discussed. The senate will adjourn today until next Monday.

SOME QUICK WORK.

Three Thieves Jailed in Less Than Ten Minutes.

John Harris, colored, was tried in court yesterday for breaking into and robbing a box car on the Southern yards a short while ago, mention of which was made in the Telegram at the time. John was convicted, but in his evidence he implicated Robert Jennings, also colored. The police have been hunting for Robert for some time but he has escaped arrest until this morning, when Officer Scott, assisted by Detective Grear and Watchman White, of the Southern, captured him and landed him in jail. It took but a short while for the officers to catch him when they got a clue. Robert is thought to be a professional robber, and had with him this morning a colored boy named Kidd, whom he has had assisting him. When arrested, Kidd had a pistol in his pocket and was locked up on this charge.

Officer Scott also arrested J. H. Cox, a white man, this morning, who, it is charged, stole a hat yesterday from R. R. Ragan, at High Point. This is probably not the worst of Cox's thefts for when arrested he had thirty-eight plugs of Heart's Content tobacco in his pockets.

ORRELL-ROBERTSON CASE.

Tried Yesterday Afternoon — Boys Ordered to County Roads.

The case of State vs. Ed. and Arthur Orrell and John Robertson for injury to a building came up in court yesterday afternoon. This is the case mentioned in the Telegram some time ago, when the three defendants broke into a disreputable house in East Greensboro, breaking down the door and otherwise injuring the building. Almost every witness introduced yesterday was forced by the solicitor to admit that they had been in court before or were at present engaged in unlawful business. The jury returned a verdict of guilty and Judge Timberlake sentenced the trio to 18 months each on the county roads. They will take an appeal.

A PRETTY WEDDING.

Miss Allen, of Virginia and Mr. Jordan, of Raleigh, Married.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at 8 o'clock last night at the residence of Mrs. T. A. Hawkins, on Asheboro street, the contracting parties being Miss May D. Allen, daughter of T.W. Allen, of Mt. Jackson, Va., and Mr. George D. Jordan, of Raleigh. Miss Allen was accompanied here by her sister, Miss Belle Allen, of Virginia, and Miss Sophie Busbee, of Raleigh.

The hospitable home of Mrs. Hawkins was beautifully decorated with evergreens and flowers. After the wedding an elegant supper was served The bride and groom left on the 10:43 train last night for Raleigh, their future home. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. J. D. Miller.

Dr. Broughton Jeered.

The morning papers contain an account of an exciting time in Dr. L. G Broughton's church in Atlanta last night. A discussion arose over the proposed sale of some church property, when the pastor left the pulpit and said: "For the sake of peace in the church, let's fight the thing out now and settle the question." Then the disgraceful scene of a part of the congregation laughing at and jeering their pastor, took place. He delivered a scathing rebuke to the disturbing element, and the sale was ordered.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C. Dec. 8

A man by the name of Cox, paralyzed on one side, was in the city day before yesterday looking around. During his stay here he went up to the Showcase Works and sauntered into Bob Ragan's room and walked off with "Bob's" best hat. Through mistake he left his old one in the room. We now learn that he is in Greensboro, but has not as yet been arrested. Some think that he went into the room to comb his hair and made a mistake about the hats.

Frank Brown, of the First regiment, and of whom we stated yesterday would be able to go to Cuba next week arrived last night on No. 7. He is just recovering from a spell of fever. Frank used to pose as a typical Cuban reconcentrado but now he poses as "any old thing." We are glad to know that he is convalescing so rapidly. He has a thirty day furlough.

One of the "ever attractive" show windows of the High Point Clothing Co., is now dressed with the prettiest line of neckwear, especially four-in-hand ties, that has ever been brought to this place. "Milt" has, as in other cases, displayed great taste in the selection of these goods. They are beauties.

The marriage of Miss Blanche Stamey, daughter of Mrs. H. F. Stamey, of this city, and Mr. White Odell Brown, of Hickory, was solemnized at the home of the mother of the bride in this city last evening at 7 o'clock in the presence of quite a number of the friends of the family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. R. Scroggs, of the M. E. Church. The bride is a daughter of the late Rev. P. F. W. Stamey, who was at one time presiding elder of the Greensboro district. The groom is connected with the wagon works at Hickory, and is a gentleman of high Christian character. The bride returns to the county in which is situated the old, yet prosperous homestead, where for generations back her people have contributed materially to the welfare of that section. She is the granddaughter of Captain Daniel H. Wyant, one of the most prominent citizens of Catawba, and has a large circle of relatives there.

Princeton, N. J., Dec. 7—Former President Grover Cleveland was interview today on the new policy of the United States and dictated the following for the Associated Press:

"Without going at all into details, I wish to say that I am ardently opposed to every feature of this annexation and expansion policy. This privilege is accorded to him in recognition of his distinguished services, and will leave General Wheeler free to exercise his functions as a member of the house of representatives during this session.

THURSDAY, DEC. 8, 1898.

It is said the Spaniards are sore over President McKinley's reference to the Maine horror in his message. We doubt not that the Dons would like to forget that episode, and it is just possible that every time it is mentioned, the ghostly apparition of a murdered crew confronts them.

One man says he believes that, if Greensboro should vote bonds sufficient to buy the water works, the electric light plant, build a market house and city hall, build better streets and complete the sewerage, some company would at once begin the construction of a street railway; but he does not offer a bond to that effect.

We see that the negro editor Manly, who recently published the Daily Record in Wilmington, the paper which caused many of his race to get into trouble, will resume the publication of that paper in New York. While we sympathize with New York at being thus afflicted we can but rejoice that her loss is our gain.

The negroes of the north have resoluted against the whites of Carolina until the ebon hue has almost assumed an ashy pale, and now the cry has been taken up in far-away Nebraska. The resolutions read as if there was really a race war being waged in the Carolinas and that negroes were being butchered by the hundred, when the fact is relations between the races were never more quiet and peaceable.

What do you think of the idea of calling a mass meeting of citizens to get an expression of opinion on the matters now under consideration by the board of aldermen? It was argued before the board Tuesday night by a representative of the present lighting company that the people of Greensboro do not want street cars. It was contended on the other side that the people do want them. Why not call together the representative citizens and taxpayers and settle the question?

The newspapers are commenting on the fact that two years ago Congressman Kitchin carried this district by a very small majority with partial fusion with the populists, while this year he won in a straight fight by over five times the majority of two years ago. While we are always in favor of a "straight fight," we do not place to that fact all the credit for Mr. Kitchin's big majority this year. There were many democratic gains, to be sure; but the difference in the size of the majorities is, to a large degree, due to the fact that two years ago Mr. Kitchin's opponent was able, brilliant and manly, while this year he was opposed by a man who possessed none of these attributes.

Hobson Goes to Manila.

New York, Dec. 7—Assistant Naval Constructor Hobson will go to Manila to superintend the raising of the sunken war vessels. He expects to leave about the 20th of this month. Hobson will shortly visit his home in Alabama but only expects to stay three or four days. He has not yet given up hopes of successfully raising the Colon, but it is doubtful whether or not the navy department can be induced to go to further expense in this work.

Constipation prevents the body from ridding itself of waste matter. De Witt's Little Early Risers will remove the trouble and cure Sick Headache, Biliousness, Inactive Liver and clear the Complexion. Small, sugar coated, do not gripe or cause nausea. Howard Gardner.

Two Pointed Questions Answered.

What is the use of making a better article than your competitor if you can not get a better price for it?

Ans.—As there is no difference in the price the public will buy only the better, so that while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate.

How can you get the public to know your make is the best?

If both articles are brought prominently before the public both are certain to be tried and the public will very quickly pass judgment on them and use only the better one.

This explains the large sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The people have been using it for years and have found that it can always be depended upon. They may occasionally take up with some fashionable novelty put forth with exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable, and for coughs, colds and croup there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can always be depended upon and is pleasant and safe to take. Sold by C. E. Holton.

BROWN'S.

"THE GOOD LORD

has always a way to provide for the poor," was the cheerful remark of a good hearted preacher a few days ago, and after closely examining each and every article at the great manufacturers' sale of clothing, and while removing his spectacles, approached the proprietor in his solemn way and said: "You, stranger, are the instrument of Providence sent to the community of Greensboro," and since we have seen the hundreds aud hundreds of poor clad people block our doors and carry out the best clothing at prices that even the cheapest kind can not be bought here in town, we began to think of the divine man's words.

It is time for you all to follow the example,

Our Stay is Short,

and if you don't come in time you won't find our goods, and that means paying the old high prices for your clothing again. Save your money and come to the

McAdoo Building,

Corner East Market and Davie Streets.
